

CANTOR ARKEMA, P.C.

Cantor Arkema, P.C. combines a highly regarded commercial business practice with an established, sophisticated trial practice. The law firm has been in existence since 1979 with offices in the Bank of America Center in downtown Richmond. The firm includes attorneys recognized by their peers as leading practitioners in Virginia and featured among the Best Lawyers in America.

The firm's trial practice includes representing plaintiffs in catastrophic injury and death cases in all types of tort actions. Motor vehicle accidents, medical malpractice, traumatic brain injury cases, and pharmaceutical and securities litigation comprise the majority of the firm's trial cases. Much of the firm's litigation practice is based on referrals from other lawyers.

The combination of business and trial attorneys uniquely positions the firm to handle complex business transactions and commercial litigation. The firm also engages in sophisticated corporate work, including corporate mergers and acquisitions, commercial real estate, reorganizations and bankruptcy, employment law, and finance and securities matters. Complex family law matters, including adoption and surrogacy issues, round out the firm's profile.
